“Though youth ministry is a universal need and project of the Church, it also has local dimensions. The Catholic Church in Australia has a rich history of ministry with young people. Our first saint, Mary of the Cross MacKillop, devoted much of her life and energy to young people; her congregation and many others did likewise. From at least the 1950s, different models of youth ministry were explored and those engaging in youth ministry today stand on the shoulders of those ministries.”

Australian Catholic Bishops Conference – Office for Youth, ‘Anointed and Sent p7.’

Spiritual formation is seen as vital to the ministry of all those involved in our Parish. It is a transformation process; as we increase in Christ, we decrease in ourselves. Faith formation is an important part in ‘being Catholic’ and is a lifelong process that helps us move past ourselves and allows us to live the Gospel of Jesus; in our homes, in our Parish, and in every interaction with others. Our Parish is committed to ensuring that this journey continues throughout our life as we grow in service of the Lord.
