Pastor's Message

In our world, where most of the celebrities highlighted in the media seem motivated by self-interest and self-assertion, Jesus' call to total service seems unrealistic, and, one might think, unlikely to succeed. But today's Gospel offers the ideal of dedication to the service of others as fundamental to Christian discipleship. Jesus came "not to be served, but to serve" and this example must always be a guiding light for his followers. He went about doing good (cf. Acts 10:38), bringing justice, healing, forgiveness and kindness into people's lives. This is why those who believe in him are challenged to give themselves, their talents and their time, to the service of others without seeking any other reward than knowing that this is supremely worthwhile. The acted parable of the foot-washing at the Last Supper gives out the same message.

In practice what can we learn from our Lord's life and actions? He clearly said that he came to do the Father's will, and this thought stayed with him, even when it led to suffering and a cruel death.

He was always about the Father's business, and made it his business. This prompts us too, with an active sense of duty, and a personal dedication to God's will for us. Normally, we discover our duty and God's will for us, not in world-changing plans or in heroic ideals but in the ordinary tasks of each day. At home or in the office, or the school or other workplace, or wherever the activity of the moment calls us, we try to be aware of duty and a sense of dedication.

Whenever we work in a poor manner, or fail to offer the needed helping hand, we fall below our personal call to service. What a change it would make, if there was a widespread return to this spirit, with regard to people's daily work. We need to be reminded that in rendering to others the service of a job well done we are imitating the serving Christ and being his fellow-workers in building up the kingdom of God on earth.

God Bless, Fr Mark

Container Recycling Scheme News

Our collaboration with Kenmore Rotary to provide a Containers for Change Bag Drop Facility for the Kenmore community will soon be open to receive your eligible containers at Our Lady of the Rosary Church carpark, Kenmore.

We encourage parishioners, our parish school community and the wider Kenmore community to take advantage of this facility by bagging, tagging and dropping your eligible containers for credit to your own scheme ID or as a donation shared equally between OLR Parish & Rotary Club of Kenmore using the scheme ID C10003721. Proceeds of donated containers will continue to benefit charitable causes of both Kenmore Rotary & Our Lady of the Rosary Parish.

This facility has been located at the top of the church carpark at 1 Kenmore Road, beside the existing electrical box, to enable drive through convenience and a safe drop off point behind the existing steel bollards.

Containers for change bags marked with scheme ID C10003721 for donations are available from the Parish office. You can also use any bag of your own, with labels and marker pens available to note your scheme ID in the red box on the pod. All unmarked bags deposited will be received as a donation in the same manner as containers previously left in the purple bins.

Our sincere thanks to Kenmore Rotary & Community Co Recycling Pty Ltd for partnering with us to make this a reality. For more information contact: The Parish manager - finchm@bne.catholic.net.au or phone the parish office on 3324 3630.

This initiative continues our commitment to the Pope's call for the 'Care of our Common Home' - Laudato Si'.
