Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse

Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse points out that the roots of domestic and family violence “lie in the abuse of power to control and dominate others” and that “this stands in contrast to the relationships to which God calls us”.

Our relationships should be “marked by equality and reciprocity rather than domination and violence, respect and freedom rather than coercion and control”.

We know that most often those who suffer violence and abuse in homes and families, in workplaces, and in communities, are women and children while the perpetrators are most often men. We support women in calling for respect in relationships; their lives and those of their children are sacred.

Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse focuses in a special way on the problem of spiritual violence and abuse. It discusses how religious teachings – including our own – may be manipulated by perpetrators to excuse violence or to exert control over others.

Cultural factors in the Church and in society often also play an important role in the violence and abuse suffered in families, households, communities, and workplaces. This behaviour is sinful.

We believe that respect, dignity and justice, transformation and hope are possible.

The Statement affirms the work being done by faith communities and organisations to support those who experience domestic and family violence and abuse, and to address the drivers and enablers of violence. It points to further ways in which we can all respond to spiritual violence.

Finally, it calls for faith communities to support and believe those going through domestic and family violence and abuse, to hold perpetrators to account and work towards individual and social transformation.

Your tax-deductible gift will be put straight to work by funding the vital Catholic agencies in our local community.

Thank you again for your time and generosity.

The Canali Program

The Canali Program is the official discernment program run by the Brisbane Archdiocese vocations office to help men discern the call to ordained ministry.

In the last 20 years, about 50% of Australian seminarians participated in a 'come and see' experience before entering Holy Spirit Seminary.

To give an active discernment experience, the Archdiocese of Brisbane is changing the Canali Program to provide a 'real world' encounter of ordained ministry for young men discerning the priesthood.

Invite the young men in your parish to actively discern today by sending them to the Vocation Brisbane website here: <http://www.vocationbrisbane.com/canali>

If you have questions about the program, feel free to contact the Vocation Brisbane team at vocation@bne.catholic.net.au or call 1300 133 544.
