Pastor's Message

Admission of Candidacy Order of Deacon

This weekend we welcome Archbishop Mark Coleridge to Our Lady of the Rosary Parish for the 9:45am Mass at Kenmore to celebrate the ritual of Admission of Candidacy for Order of Deacon for Anthony Vassallo.

This is a simple yet important ritual where the person aspiring to the permanent diaconate, states his intention to receive the sacrament of Holy Orders and thereby embrace the clerical state.

The bishop, in turn, formally accepts the aspirant as an official candidate for Holy Orders. The rite signifies that the local Church in the person of the diocesan bishop welcomes a man as a candidate for the Order of Deacon.

A permanent deacon is ordained to serve the church through ministry of word, worship, pastoral care, and charity. A deacon may baptise, preach, officiate at marriages and funerals but cannot preside at Eucharist or give absolution.

A 'permanent' deacon fulfils these important pastoral roles without being ordained to the priesthood.

Please see the Vocation Brisbane website for more details on the Permanent Diaconate and profiles of those men currently in formation, including Anthony.

As a Parish community we pray for Anthony and his family during this weekend as he prepares to be admitted as a Candidate for Holy Orders.

I invite you to attend the 9.45am Mass and to share in the Celebration after Mass with Morning Tea.

God Bless, Fr Mark
